

◀ New Client Instructions ▶

Mistress Elliot always looks forward to meeting each new client and is eager to ensure that your first session is as smooth and successful as possible. The Mistress gleefully enjoys what she does with her clients and her dungeon is an arena for creativity, growth, positivity and vitality. We can only truly PLAY on the grounds of mutual respect; this requires good manners to facilitate cooperation. To make the first session as fulfilling as possible for both The Mistress and yourself please read the following instructions carefully. Before you visit Mistress Elliot you must know how she will expect you to behave. The information and instructions provided here should prepare you for your first meeting.

- The Appointment:

- ✓ Don't book a time if you can't make it or you aren't really sure (The Mistress will turn down anyone who sounds the least bit doubtful).
- ✓ Write down the directions. Note any assignments Mistress Elliot gives you and the answers to your questions so that you can review later.
- ✓ Once your appointment with Mistress Elliot has been confirmed, she will give you directions on how to arrive for your appointment. You must contact her on the day of and by the time she has stated or your session will be cancelled. This is mandatory.
- ✓ Once you have confirmed that day's session Mistress Elliot will provide directions to a location near her dungeon, her phone number and instruct you to call 10 minutes in advance of your session.
- ✓ She will then give you the final directions to her location and provide parking suggestions.
- ✓ Be on time. If you can't keep your appointment, call to cancel as soon as possible. The Mistress will appreciate it because no-shows cost money if she saves a time for you. If you are more than fifteen minutes late you will be considered a no-show and charged a $75 "no-show" fee.
- ✓ You must be clean. That means showered, dressed appropriately for "normal" life, teeth brushed, and feet and other potentially smelly areas free of odor. The Mistress prefers all pubic hair be neatly trimmed or removed entirely.
- ✓ Please do not arrive in visible fetish wear or openly carrying your latest fetish implements. Mistress Elliot keeps her business private and expects you to honor that. Discretion is the key.

- What to Expect in Session

The Mistress might answer the door in street clothes. You might have to wait for her to finish up with another client. You will be required to pay up front. The Mistress requires all payments be in cash only. Your tribute should be neatly tucked into a plain white envelope and left in the basket on the table just inside the front entryway. If you appear intoxicated or impaired in any way, Mistress Elliot will dismiss you immediately with no refund.

On your first visit you will be left to take off your clothes after a brief meeting with the Mistress. You will be given a safeword (a word that will let her know you can't take more of the same) before she starts to play. Act according to her directions -- Mistress Elliot demands strict adherence to conduct befitting a submissive. Don't have unrealistic expectations - the session will not match your fantasies perfectly. And definitely do not bring a line-by-line script. Be open and let the Mistress do her thing - you might find it better than your script.

- What NOT to Expect in Session

Realize that when Mistress Elliot says "no sex" she truly means it in the broadest interpretation. Know that she won't be taking off her clothes, dancing, massaging or letting you kiss intimate body parts - go see someone else for these activities. The Mistress does not provide any type of sexual service. Do not ask. Mistress Elliot provides Professional Domination, NOT prostitution. She will follow all the laws and rules of the State of Kansas and expects you to do the same.

MISTRESS ELLIOT DOES NOT PARTICIPATE IN:

- Sexual activities of any kind.
- Play with anyone under the age of 21.
- Adult infantilism - it is simply not a fetish of hers.
- Scat/brown/Roman showers, for the same reason.
- Permanent body modification - permanent piercing, scarification, branding
- Strangulation or choking scenes. This is extremely dangerous. She may do very mild forms of breath control play on experienced clients only.
- Public play.
- Suspension Bondage.
- Long bondage scenes will be done under some circumstances, but The Mistress will not do a session where she ties someone up and leaves them alone for long periods. This is not a safe thing to do.
- Voyeurism scenes - meaning that you cannot just come in and watch her dominate someone else.

These limitations are for legal and health reasons and they are non-negotiable. Any attempt to coerce her into any of these things will result in the immediate discontinuation of your session and permanent dismissal from Miss Elliot's presence. NO EXCEPTIONS.

- List your Fetishes

Make a list of your likes/dislikes. Pay attention to your fantasies, if you fantasize about a certain fetish frequently - usually you will enjoy it in session. Categorize your list into things that you (a) know you like, (b) are willing to try, and (c) do not want to do. (You may have already done some of this in the online application form)

Don't leave anything out because you are embarrassed or scared, wish you didn't want it, think the Mistress will lose respect for you. These mistakes will only keep you from realizing your true fantasies.

- Determine your Limits

Go back over your list. Estimate your threshold for each activity by comparing it to prior experiences with intense sensations that you found erotic (or past S/M scenes). Realistically evaluate whether you want light, medium or heavy play in each area of interest. Remember that each activity may be combined with additional sensory input during a session, which will multiply your perception. Novices should start with light play only; you can always increase the intensity. And most importantly don't say "you can do anything with me, Mistress" because Mistress Elliot will use that opportunity to satisfy her most severe sadistic urges thinking that you are one of the rare few who can handle it. Don't try to impress by overstating your limits - you won't!

- Special Equipment

Some activities require specific toys and equipment. Figure out your own special needs in this area and inform the Mistress. Don't assume that the Mistress can provide the correct equipment you desire. There are times when you will be asked to bring your own toys/equipment. This is for both sanitary reasons and to assist you in the fulfillment of your personal desires. Furthermore, if you have a specific fetish for something unusual such as "footie pajamas" or "ping pong balls" go out and buy some to present to the Mistress in session.

- What To Do So That Mistress Elliot Will Let you Come Back

Be clean. Be respectful. Be obedient. If you really want to make an impression, bring her a little something such as a gag, blindfold, scented candle or flowers. Go over your likes/dislikes and make sure you have stated them clearly before the session starts. Speak up if she pushes beyond your limits -- Mistress Elliot appreciates the input without being threatened. Don't try to impress by surpassing your limits. Understand that the Mistress may have another client waiting so don't hang around so long that she has to come out and tell you about her next appointment. Help her to clean up. Demonstrate your gratitude - tell her how great the session was and that you want to see her again.

- Follow Up

Afterwards write down your impressions, wait a few days to fully assess your reactions. Sometimes you will find activities that were unpleasant during session, were actually exciting afterwards. This is a common experience. Some BDSM is highly anticipated before, despised during, and relished after the act. That is a part of masochism - doing things that you don't like. If you wish to see Mistress Elliot again -figure out the positive and negative elements of your session so that you can pass that information on to The Mistress the next time you see her. Adjust your list of limits if you have learned more about your preferences. The Mistress may ask you to write a review of your session and provide her a copy soon afterwards.
